01/23/2020	Sister Elaine	Shares a word of encouragement from SOP by Ellen G. White: A Definition of Faith.--Faith, saving faith, is to be taught. The definition of this faith in Jesus Christ may be described in few words: It is the act of the soul by which the whole man is given over to the guardianship and control of Jesus Christ. He abides in Christ and Christ abides in the soul by faith as supreme. The believer commits his soul and body to God and with assurance may say, Christ is able to keep that which I have committed unto Him against that day. All who will do this will be saved unto life eternal. There will be an assurance that the soul is washed in the blood of Christ and clothed with His righteousness and precious in the sight of Jesus. Our thoughts and our hopes are on the second advent of our Lord. That is the day when the Judge of all the earth will reward the trust of His people.--MS 6, 1889. {2MCP 531.1}
01/23/2020	Sister Victoria	Shares a word of encouragement: Most of us know the Aesop Fable titled, "The Hare and the Tortoise." This came to my mind as the recent videos of present truth has begun to be posted in measure. At times, it can be so overwhelming and seem difficult to keep up with the light coming out. But, don't fall discouraged in not being fast enough to watch every video. Do what you can to keep up. The race is not always to the swift, but as we should know to those who endure to the end and finish: The Hare & the Tortoise A Hare was making fun of the Tortoise one day for being so slow. "Do you ever get anywhere?" he asked with a mocking laugh. "Yes," replied the Tortoise, "and I get there sooner than you think. I'll run you a race and prove it." The Hare was much amused at the idea of running a race with the Tortoise, but for the fun of the thing he agreed. So the Fox, who had consented to act as judge, marked the distance and started the runners off. The Hare was soon far out of sight, and to make the Tortoise feel very deeply how ridiculous it was for him to try a race with a Hare, he lay
