03/12/2020	Sister Victoria	Recently asked for prayer specifically for her cousin who had a heart attack, and had to have triple bypass surgery. She is doing much better now. The surgery was successful. She has not recovered entirely and still needs to undergo some rehabilitation for physical therapy. Thank you so much for your prayers! God is so good! It is such a blessing to serve a God who hears and answers prayers. ☺
03/12/2020	Sister Elaine	Shares a word from scripture: Jeremiah 12:5 ~If thou hast run with the footmen, and they have wearied thee, then how canst thou contend with horses? And if in the land of peace, wherein thou trustedst, they wearied thee, then how wilt thou do in the swelling of Jordan? As you ponder this thought, may you be richly encouraged. Blessings!
03/12/2020	Sister Victoria	Shares a word of encouragement: The book Steps to Christ has always been one of my favorites to read for encouragement and to meditate and ponder upon ... Today (March 8, 2020), I was impressed to grab it from my shelf and start reading it... And the words in this book hit me like no other time in my life as in my current experience ... So, I just want to share a passage that spoke to my heart's cry, "Many are inquiring, 'How am I to make the surrender of myself to God?' You desire to give yourself to Him, but you are weak in moral power, in slavery to doubt, and controlled by the habits of your life of sin. Your promises and resolutions are like ropes of sand. You cannot control your thoughts, your impulses, your affections. The knowledge of your broken promises and forfeited pledges weakens your confidence in your own sincerity, and causes you to feel that God cannot accept you; but you need not despair. What you need to understand is the governing power in the nature of man, the power of decision, or of choice. Everything depends on the right action of the will. The power of choice God has given to men; it is theirs to exercise. You cannot change your heart, you cannot of yourself give to God its affections; but you can choose to serve Him. You can give Him your will; He will then work in you to will and do according to His good pleasure. Thus your whole nature will be brought under the control of the Spirit of Christ; Your affections will be centered upon Him, your thoughts will be in harmony with Him." {SC 47.1} This entire book is

Praise ye the LORD. Praise, O ye servants of the LORD, praise the name of the LORD.
