04/16/2020	Sister Elaine	Shares a word of encouragement from SOP written by Ellen G. White: “Those who love Jesus will bring all in their lives into harmony with His will. They have chosen to be on the Lord’s side, and their lives are to stand out in vivid contrast with the lives of worldlings. The tempter will come to them with his blandishments and bribes, saying “All this will I give thee if thou wilt worship me.” But they know that he has nothing worth receiving, and they refuse to yield to his temptations. Through the grace of God they are enabled to keep their purity of principle unsullied. Holy angels are close beside them, and Christ is revealed in their steadfast adherence to the truth. They are Christ’s minutemen, bearing as true witnesses, a decided testimony in favor of the truth. They show that there is a spiritual power that can enable men and women not to swerve an inch from truth and justice for all the gifts that men can bestow. Such ones, wherever they may be, will be honored of heaven because they have conformed their lives to the will of God, caring not what sacrifices they are called upon to make.” 9T 23.3
04/16/2020	Sister Elaine	Shares a word of encouragement from the SOP written by Ellen G. White: “We should never give to the world the false impression that Christians are a gloomy, unhappy people. If our eyes are fixed on Jesus, we shall see a compassionate Redeemer, and shall catch light from His countenance. Whenever His Spirit reigns, there is peace abides. And there will be joy also, for there is a calm, holy trust in God. DA 152.5 Christ is pleased with His followers when they show that though human, they are partakers of the divine nature. They are not statues, but living men and women. Their hearts, refreshed by the dews of divine grace, open and expand to the Sun of Righteousness. The light that shines upon them they reflect upon others in works that are luminous with the love of Christ.” DA 153.1
4/16/2020	Group Chat	A sister shared a lovely quote from SOP written by Ellen G. White: “Love cannot long exist without expression. Let not the heart of one

Praise ye the LORD. Praise, O ye servants of the LORD, praise the name of the LORD.
