10/15/2019	Brother Larry	Shares a word of encouragement: Every once in a while, a ewe will give birth to a lamb and reject it. There are many reasons she may do this. If the lamb is returned to the ewe, the mother may even kick the poor animal away. Once a ewe rejects one of her lambs, she will never change her mind. These little lambs will hang their heads so low that it looks like something is wrong with its neck. Their spirit is broken. These lambs are called "bummer lambs." Unless the shepherd intervenes, that lamb will die, rejected and alone. So, do you know what the shepherd does? He takes that rejected little one into his home, hand-feeds it and keeps it warm by the fire. He will wrap it up with blankets and hold it to his chest so the bummer can hear his heartbeat. Once the lamb is strong enough, the shepherd will place it back in the field with the rest of the flock. But that sheep never forgets how the shepherd cared for him when his mother rejected him. When the shepherd calls for the flock, guess who runs to him first? That is right, the bummer sheep. He knows his voice intimately. It is not that the bummer lamb is loved more; it just knows intimately the one who loves it. It's not that it is loved more; it just believes it because it has experienced that love one on one. So many of us are bummer lambs, rejected and broken. But He is the good Shepherd. He cares for our every need and holds us close to His heart so we can hear His heart beat. We may be broken but we are deeply loved by the Shepherd. Praise the Lord! What a beautiful story illustrating God's love for us!
10/15/2019	Sister Lana	Shares a word of encouragement: Our heavenly Father has a thousand ways to provide for us, of which we know nothing. The Desire of Ages, p. 330. Praise God!
10/15/2019	Select Members of Sac Fellowship	Would just like to praise the Lord in how He works things out for us. In the midst of trials and inconveniences, He is ever there to help us through them all. What a faithful God we serve! With all that comes (the challenges and joys) in laboring for the Lord and doing the ministerial work He has called to do, He is ever a present helper and aiding us along. Praise be to His name! It is only our prayer to remain faithful to that high calling and finishing the work that we may be accounted among those who overcome and receive the crown of victory.
10/15/2019	Sister Victoria	The Youth Prophecy Group (YPG) had their first meeting October 13, 2019. The meeting was a success and most importantly a blessing.

Praise ye the LORD. Praise, O ye servants of the LORD, praise the name of the LORD.
Psalms 113:1

Praise Report Log

		Praise God! Remember families to log in every Sunday at 10am (PST) via Zoom to partake of such a blessing as the youth help each other to understand present truth.
10/15/2019	Sister Lana	Offers praise to the Lord with much gratitude and thanksgiving! She praises God for keeping our family safe for us. May He hold them, and lead them to the safety of His wings. Amen!
