05/21/2020	Select Members of Sac Fellowship	Praises the Lord for His quick action and helping hand! A week ago we asked prayer for Sister Toni as she had been having itchy eyes, wheezing, and shortness of breath. She had gone to the ER and was tested for COVID-19. Though Sister Toni is still awaiting the results, she is doing a little better. She is home and is able to attend meetings, fellowship, and continue to present/teach; in addition to care for her brother, Mark. Praise the Lord! He is so wonderful in how He worked out the turn of events. Sister Toni is beaming with joy as she trusts the Lord with the outcome of her test results. Hoping, as we all are, that she be found healthy and COVID-19 free. Continual prayer is appreciated. ©
05/21/2020	Sister Elaine	Praises the Lord for good news from a beloved brother! She had asked that we keep Brother Robert in prayer. He has tested negative for COVID-19, but was diagnosed with pneumonia. Brother Robert had to check into the ER once again. But praise be to God that he is now back at home feeling much better. Brother Robert praises the Lord for his protection and constant care. He is filled with gratitude that nothing worse came of it. He trusts that the Lord will help him recover as God has done in past times before. Amen! Praise the Lord!
05/21/2020	Sister Victoria	Shares a personal testimony after watching Portugal presentation #100 by E. Parminder: Wow! These presentations are so powerful! As I (we) come to understand that every relationship (the five key relationships) are a proxy—parable—to help us understand and know God, it has not only led me to reevaluate my purpose here on this earth, but also led me to be open to God being vulnerable with me in revealing Himself to me on an entirely deeper level. That though I had no choice in being populated on this earth, He wanted a relationship with me. And as I think how one opens up and becomes completely vulnerable with someone—in any way, but especially the marriage (or intimate) relationship, it makes me think about how God knows the ins and outs, the secret things, everything about me, and He wants the same thing for me, for me to know and understand all of Him. One person explained intimacy as "in-to-you-I-see." I found that to be so profound and yet I find it more profound that God wants to be vulnerable with me. To completely open Himself up to me. And the prayer that I pray come upon my lips is, "Yes Lord, I will love you still." There is so much that I still don't know about God, but as He reveals Himself through every proxy, I pray that I will not be ashamed or disgusted, but be that safe place that says, "Yes Lord, I will love you still." Amen!

05/21/2020	Sister Elaine	Shares a passage from SOP written by Ellen G. White:
		"The Christian a Sturdy Cedar—When the love of Jesus is abiding in the soul, many who are now but withered branches will become as the cedars of Lebanon, 'Whose root is by the great waters.' The cedar is rooted for the firmness of its roots. Not content to cling to the earth with a few weak fibers, it thrusts its rootlets, like a sturdy wedge, into the cloven rock, and reaches down deeper and deeper for strong holds to grasp. When the tempest grapples with its boughs, that firmset tree cannot be uprooted. What a goodly cedar might not every follower of Christ become, if he were but rooted and grounded in the truth, firmly united to the Eternal Rock" (The Review and Herald, June 20, 1882). 3BC 1151.5
