Praise Report Log

Date	Name	Testimonial Reports
07/16/2020	Members of Sac Fellowship	Praises God for the wonderful weekend of meetings event hosted by White Stone Foundation (WSF) ministry in Canada. The meetings occurred via Zoom. And what a blessing the meetings were! The speakers were Elders Tess and Thabo. The fellowship was sweet though virtual. There were little to no internet disruptions and mostly ran smoothly and held under control. The special music was absolutely beautiful and heartfelt! The messages were timely and on point. Praise the Lord for truth and a clearer understand of the lines! May we trust in Who holds the cords and hang on for dear life!
07/16/2020	Sister Lana	Praises the Lord for hearing our prayers and moving endearingly in the life of her parents. Sister Lana had asked us to keep her parents in prayer as they had fallen ill with symptoms of fever, cough, and runny nose. And, with the difficulty of getting checked into a hospital due to COVID19, only added to the anxiety and frustration from the situation. So we prayed, and Sister Lana shared a sweet testimony, expressing much gratitude: "Dear church family, thank you for your prayers for my parents … my father is doing well, and my mother is well now [too]. Your prayers made this possible. God bless you all, and [may God] give us and our family protection and healing." Amen. Praise the Lord!
07/16/2020	Sister Elaine	Shares a word of encouragement from SOP written by Ellen G. White: Isaiah had a wonderful view of God's glory. He saw the manifestation of God's power, and after beholding His majesty, a message came to him to go and do a certain work. He felt wholly unworthy for the work. What made him esteem himself unworthy? Did he think himself unworthy before he had a view of God's glory?--No; he imagined himself in a righteous state before God; but when the glory of the Lord of hosts was revealed to him, when he beheld the inexpressible majesty of God, he said, "I am undone; because I am a man of unclean lips, and I dwell in the midst of a people of unclean lips; for mine eyes have seen the King, the Lord of hosts. Then flew one of the seraphim unto me, having a living coal in his hands, which he had taken with the tongs from off the altar, and he laid it upon my mouth, and said, Lo, this hath touched thy lips; and thine iniquity is taken away, and thy sin

Praise ye the LORD. Praise, O ye servants of the LORD, praise the name of the LORD.
Psalms 113:1

		purged." This is the work that as individuals we need to have done for us. We want the living coal from off the altar placed upon our lips. We want to hear the word spoken, "Thine iniquity is taken away, and thy sin purged" (RH June 4, 1889). {4BC 1139.4} ~~~~~~ When One Is Ready to Work With God, He Carries Message.-- Isaiah had a message from the God of heaven to give to the backsliding people of Israel, and he gave them this message. He knew what elements he had to deal with; he knew the stubbornness and perversity of the heart, and how hard it would be to make any impression upon them. As he stood in the portico of the temple, the Lord revealed Himself to him. The veil of the temple was withdrawn, the door lifted, and he had a view of the holy of holies within the veil. He saw the God of Israel before the throne high and lifted up, and the train of His glory filled the temple. As Isaiah senses his own sinfulness, he cries out, "I am a man of unclean lips, and I dwell in the midst of a people of unclean lips." And there was seen the hand that took the live coal from off the altar, and touched his lips, and bade him be clean. Then he was ready to go with the message, and he said, "Send me"; for he knew that the Spirit of God would be with the message. {4BC 1141.3} To those who are engaged in the work of God, in the conversion of souls, it would seem as though it was impossible to reach the obdurate heart. This is how Isaiah felt, but when he saw that there was a God above the cherubim, and that they were ready to work with God, he was ready to carry the message (RH May 3, 1887). {4BC 1141.4}

Praise Report Log