Your goal as leader is to destroy the dependency of the people around you 27. You are a great leader when your people don't need you 28. Make people greater than you and you will live forever 29. True leaders do not seek power; they rather seek to empower others 30. Never confuse your position with your value 31. The first act of a true leader is identifying your replacement and you begin to mentor them 32. You become great by producing people greater than yourself 33. When you produce someone greater than yourself, don't get jealous 34. When you train your replacement, you are free to expand your work 35. When you mentor people, your legacy will make your tombstone unnecessary Think about it... Rise by lifting others |
| 12/24/2020 | Sister Victoria                  | Praises God for His mercy! As some of us may know, vaccines have begun to be distributed and administered in many countries. Sister Victoria expresses her heart of praise and thanksgiving, "Praise God for the vaccines! What a breakthrough! Hopefully the vaccines will be able to combat the new strand that is spreading in Europe. Albeit, at the end of the day, a vaccine is better than no vaccine. So, praise God indeed!"  |
| 12/24/2020 | Select Members of Sac Fellowship | With the news of the "Great Conjunction" occurring this year on December 21, 2020, it was the hope and goal for some of us to witness it happen—the moment in the night sky when Jupiter and Saturn unite, or come close together (to create, what is said to be, the Christmas Star that led the three wise men to Jesus) visibly to the naked eye. It is also stated that it happens every 800 years. And it is very fortunate to be living at such a time to see it transpire. However, for most of us, our anticipation was dwindled some when the weather forecast foreshadowed cloudy and raining weather. And so was the case, many of us missed the event due to poor weather and unclear skies.   |

However, praise be to God for our brothers and sisters who attempted to capture the moment and the moments leading up to the day for all of us to see! It was truly sweet indeed! Good times that will be remembered. Here are some snapshots that were shared:

| 12/24/2020 | Select Members of Sac Fellowship | We all know that Christ was not born on December 25th –Christmas day. Nevertheless, it is at this time of year that the life of Christ is commemorated by most of the world or at the very least Christ is in the thoughts of many. It is also the time of year when the spirit of love, altruism, kindness, togetherness, and compassion is most embraced and exuded by individuals and families that are close, near, far, and abroad. Most of us either know or have friends and relatives who cherish the spirit of Christmas and will get to spend precious time with them during the holiday. And so with joyful and jolly hearts, we send you season greetings! Happy holidays to you and yours! |
