Sister Elaine	Sister Bitila Vakadrano from Fiji asks for prayers for her family. She says that there is a lot happening where she resides. And she and her family have been wrongfully accused of something they did not do. She says that she and her family have accepted all the messages and is asking for God's help every day. Please keep her and her family in prayer. Thank you.	06/04/2020
Sister Adriana	Asks that we keep her coworker, Jen and her family in prayer, specifically for her son and granddaughter. Her son has been in jail for a bit, but he has turned his life around. He went through a program and became a certified firefighter. He is still in jail and is supposed to stay for at least 9 more months. Sister Adriana's coworker, Jen just recently found out that her son's daughter (and her granddaughter) has an aggressive brain tumor that is inoperable. She has about 1 year to live. They are trying to get a lawyer desperately to get him out of jail so he can spend some time with his daughter before she dies. Jen's heart is broken and she has been crying a lot. Please pray for the miracle she desires in having her son get released from jail soon so he can see his daughter in the short amount of time she has left. Thank you.	06/04/2020

Sister Victoria	Asks that we keep in prayer all who suffers from racism and racist ideology both personally, systemically, and institutionally. The recent death of George Floyd to police brutality was just the last straw in the long struggle against social injustice and inequality that Black people face in America. The built up anger, disgust, outrage, and hurt over countless lives being lost to police violence has stirred up many to stand up in protest and riot against an injustice system that targets Black lives. Please pray for the families who are hurting at this time due to the loss of innocent loved ones and all affected by such injustice. It breaks the heart of many to see one black life taken after another over racist attitudes and beliefs and horrible mistreatment. Enough is enough! The injustice has got to stop. Pray that we value one another and love our neighbor as Christ has loved us and treat each other better than ourselves. Lord, help us!	06/04/2020

As people continue to adjust to the new normal, please pray for protection for those unknowingly exposed and for those who are stuck in places where the virus is hit very strong. Thank you.	06/04/2020
